Change Our Game Research Grants Program

Message from the Minister for Tourism, Sport and Major Events, the Hon Martin Pakula MP

There are a number of removable barriers currently in place that are preventing women and girls from participating, leading and succeeding across all levels of sport and active recreation.

The Change Our Game Research Grants Program provides Victorian researchers the chance to investigate these barriers, identify solutions and play a leading role in shaping and supporting local communities.

Research grants are available for Victorian researchers to undertake projects aimed at improving the environment for women and girls in sport and active recreation.

The program reflects the Victorian Government's commitment to creating welcoming and inclusive sport and recreation environments, promoting health and wellbeing as well as boosting research in Victoria.

By working together in new and innovative ways we can further gender equality across all levels of the Victorian sport and recreation sector, and in doing so, stimulate local economies and create new jobs and volunteer opportunities.

I look forward to seeing Victorian researchers passionate about improving the environment for women and girls in sport and active recreation benefit from the Change Our Game Research Grants Program and drive positive outcomes for all.

THE HON MARTIN PAKULA MP

Minister for Tourism, Sport and Major Events

1 Program description and objectives

1.1 What is the Change Our Game Research Grants Program?

The Change Our Game Research Grant Program is a Victorian Government funding program that assists Victorian researchers to undertake research relating to women and girls in sport and active recreation.

Research grants of up to $25,000 per project are available to support and advance research related to women and girls in sport and active recreation.

1.2 Why is the Victorian Government funding these grants?

The Change Our Game Research Grant Program aims to build Victoria's research capacity around women and girls in sport and active recreation, in turn leading to better outcomes for all Victorians.

In November 2015, the Inquiry into Women and Girls in Sport and Active Recreation (Inquiry) made nine recommendations aimed at enhancing participation by women and girls in sport and active recreation and increasing engagement in leadership and governance roles. The Victorian Government adopted all nine Inquiry recommendations.

The Change Our Game Research Grant Program aims to address recommendation 7 (to build an enabling environment through education and training). This includes building capacity to deliver more sector-wide conferences and workshops on new research and developing opportunities to support leadership pathways in schools and universities for young women.

2 Who can apply?

Victorian-based universities are eligible to apply for funding and may submit multiple applications for different projects.

3 What types of activities might be funded?
